Accessibility Policy

The Southern Maine Agency on Aging is committed to ensuring a fair and accessible web experience to individuals with disabilities. We seek to make all of the pages contained within the smaaaco.org to meet W3C WAI's Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.0 (WCAG), Level AA conformance at a minimum.

This policy applies to all web content produced or updated by Southern Maine Agency on Aging. We will ensure that third-party content providers are aware of our web accessibility policy but cannot guaranteed the level of third-party accessibility conformance claims.

Any questions, concerns, or suggestions for improvement regarding this website should be reported to info@smaaa.org.

Fair Use Policy

This website may reproduce or have links to copyrighted material the use of which has not been expressly authorized by the copyright owner. The Southern Maine Agency on Aging makes such material available, without profit, as part of our efforts to advance understanding of issues that impact the well-being of seniors living in Cumberland and York counties. It is our understanding that this constitutes as a "fair use" of any such copyrighted materials as provided by law. If you wish to use copyrighted material from this site for purposes that go beyond "fair use", you must obtain permission from the copyright owner.

Privacy Policy

The Southern Maine Agency on Aging values the support of its program participants, volunteers, donors, clients, and website visitors. We know that protecting your personal information is critical. We take great care with all personal information collected on the SMAA network of websites including smaaacbo.org and smaaa.org. We will never share or sell your personal information with anyone. The information we collect is used solely by our employees for the purpose of contacting you based on your request for information.

As is true of most websites, we gather usage information include, but not limited to, referring pages, internet protocol (IP) addresses, internet service provider (ISP), operating system, browser type, and the time and date. We use the information, which does not uniquely identify individual users, to analyze trends, and to manage and improve our websites.
